Award Notification & Reaching Financial Agreement

- Financial aid applications will be processed by the TCS Business Office after March 1st.
- You will be notified via email no later than the end of April regarding our financial aid assessment.
- After receiving notification, you will need to reply with acceptance or decline of the offer by the date indicated in the notice. Please understand that if accepting the offer, you may be required to sign additional paperwork in the TCS Business Office in order to fully accept the financial agreement. (Note: A student's seat will be secured on a first come basis, as seats are available, and upon successful completion of the above steps to include reaching a financial agreement between the financially responsible parent and Timberlake Christian School.)
